

Back-country travelers may encounter a variety of potentially dangerous conditions - It is your responsibility to inform yourself about these risks and take appropriate precautions

Winter Recreation near Chief Joseph Pass and Lost Trail Pass

The Cross-Country Skiers' Code of Responsibility

Respect trail signs - On loop trails, travel in the recommended direction

Ski in control - Keep a safe distance from skiers ahead of you

Pass to the right of on-coming skiers

Groups should ski in single file

Climbing skiers should yield to downhill skiers

Keep the trail clear - Move off of the trail when resting - After a fall, fill in holes and leave the trail smooth After a fall

Help fellow skiers

Snowshoe beside set ski tracks, not on them

Do not walk on ski trails

Groomed Trail: Classic

Groomed: Classic & Skate

Groomed Road: Skate

Groomed Road: Skate (Snowmobiles restricted)

Ungroomed Road

Ungroomed Trail

Cross Country Ski Area

Snowshoe Area

Snowmobile Route

Downhill Ski Area

Multi-use: motorized and non-motorized

USFS Rental Cabin

Restrooms

Parking

Dogs are NOT permitted on any trails groomed with classic ski tracks at Chief Joseph Pass Ski Area

Dogs ARE permitted on all trails without groomed classic ski tracks in the surrounding area

Map by
Jim Greenfield - 2016

